Four groups, each with a soloist. All phrases are sung (till near the end).
 Each group agrees on the approximate melody of each phrase, but everyone sings individually, each person repeating his/her phrase to make a cheerful cacophony.
 The colons represent miniscule rests. u as in hut, oo as in took, uu as in lute. ` = accent.
 The phrases in brackets to be sung occasionally by the soloist.
 The duration of each bar is decided by the conductor.
 The numbers above the bar lines are the approximate number of seconds to move from one bar to the next.
